

ILLINOIS HOLOCAUST MUSEUM
& EDUCATION CENTER

Resistance Is....

To smuggle a loaf of bread — was to resist.

To teach in secret — was to resist.

To gather information and distribute an underground newsletter — was to resist.

To cry out warning and shatter illusions — was to resist.

To rescue a Torah scroll — was to resist.

To forge documents — was to resist.

To smuggle people across borders — was to resist.

To chronicle events and conceal the records — was to resist.

To extend a helping hand to those in need — was to resist.

To dare to speak out, at the risk of one's life — was to resist.

To stand empty-handed against the killers — was to resist.

To reach the besieged, smuggling weapons and commands — was to resist.

To take up arms in streets, mountains and forests — was to resist.

To rebel in the death camps — was to resist.

To rise up in the ghettos, amid tumbling walls,
in the most desperate revolt humanity has ever known...

By Haim Guri and Monia Avrahami (Flames in the Ashes)